TEACHER TRAINING COURSE OFFERED
AT UM SPRING QUARTER

MISSOULA--

A course entitled "Teacher Training Workshop: New Trends in the Teaching of English" will be offered at the University of Montana spring quarter.

The course, English 506, will start March 27 and meet every Monday from 7-9 p.m. in the UM Liberal Arts Building, room 337.

Richard R. Adler, course instructor and assistant professor of English at UM said course emphasis will be on recent developments in response to literature, the composing process and language in the secondary curriculum. Other areas of interest will be considered.

The course, mainly for secondary level teachers, will be based on recent theoretical considerations.

It is being offered for three credits by the UM Extension Division and will cost $48.
